

Funding My Pledge When I Retire

Each year local church members and friends provide funds for missions and ministries. As retirement approaches, many families want to continue to give generously, but don't know how.

The United Methodist Foundation of New England encourages everyone to create an estate plan. Wills and planned gifts established today can assure continuing support for ministry beyond your lifetime.

Bequests – Designate an amount or percentage from your estate. Share your decision with the church or charity.

Charitable Gift Annuities – Fund an annuity which pays annual income to the donor. Name your church as a beneficiary so the principal of the annuity goes directly to your church as a charitable gift in the future.

Charitable Remainder Trusts – Donors can place assets into a trust and receive income during their lifetime. Name your church as a beneficiary of the trust, some or all of your assets can go directly to your church as a charitable gift.
