

Plan My Retirement at Church?!

By taking time now to make plans for our future, each of us can be more confident that our finances will grow and the following resources will be available when we need them:

- Money for a comfortable retirement
- Money for the church that has been a part of our lives nurturing the spiritual growth and education of our families
- Money for our heirs with a minimum of expense and confusion

As you plan for retirement, we encourage you to think about your own personal estate plans. Let the United Methodist Foundation of New England's Planned Giving Ministry assist you. We are familiar with the many options you may consider and will refer you to competent financial and legal professionals to help you put your plans in place.
