

Test Your “Will” Knowledge

As you read this _____ please fill in the _____ by using the _____ listed. Thank _____.

Even though most _____ know that a will is _____, a surprising number die _____ (without a will). When this happens, the _____ steps in and dictates where the estate _____ will go. A probate judge determines who will act as your personal representative (_____) and the person who will be the _____ for any dependents you may have.

Without a _____, you won't be able to make a _____ to ABC Charity or other organizations you care about. Nor will you be able to minimize any possible estate _____.

We encourage you to find a good estate-_____ attorney for advice and preparation of the documents you need. Getting a valid will take a little _____ and effort, but the result will be _____ of mind, not only for you but also for your loved ones.

So don't _____. Make an appointment _____. And remember, not having a will is a blank only you can _____.

Word List

- bequest
- people
- taxes
- article
- intestate
- procrastinate
- will
- state
- giving
- you
- guardian
- time
- words
- today
- peace
- planning
- executor/
executrix
- fill
- important
- assets
- blanks

Answers: article, blanks, words, you, people, important, intestate, state, assets, executor/executrix, guardian, will, bequest, taxes, planning, time, peace, procrastinate, today, fill, giving

The United Methodist Foundation of New England can help you start your Will planning process. For more information on Wills or to request a free Will Kit, visit our web site at www.umfne.org and click on Planned Giving. You can also contact Gary Melville, Director of Planned Giving at 800-595-4347 X103 or email gary@umfne.org.

Test Your “Will” Knowledge

As you read this _____ please fill in the _____ by using the _____ listed. Thank _____.

Even though most _____ know that a will is _____, a surprising number die _____ (without a will). When this happens, the _____ steps in and dictates where the estate _____ will go. A probate judge determines who will act as your personal representative (_____) and the person who will be the _____ for any dependents you may have.

Without a _____, you won't be able to make a _____ to ABC Charity or other organizations you care about. Nor will you be able to minimize any possible estate _____.

We encourage you to find a good estate-_____ attorney for advice and preparation of the documents you need. Getting a valid will take a little _____ and effort, but the result will be _____ of mind, not only for you but also for your loved ones.

So don't _____. Make an appointment _____. And remember, not having a will is a blank only you can _____.

Word List

- bequest
- people
- taxes
- article
- intestate
- procrastinate
- will
- state
- giving
- you
- guardian
- time
- words
- today
- peace
- planning
- executor/
executrix
- fill
- important
- assets
- blanks

Answers: article, blanks, words, you, people, important, intestate, state, assets, executor/executrix, guardian, will, bequest, taxes, planning, time, peace, procrastinate, today, fill, giving

The United Methodist Foundation of New England can help you start your Will planning process. For more information on Wills or to request a free Will Kit, visit our web site at www.umfne.org and click on Planned Giving. You can also contact Gary Melville, Director of Planned Giving at 800-595-4347 X103 or email gary@umfne.org.